Report

B-138162

August 25, 1967

Dear Mr. Helms:

On August 23, 1967, we submitted to the Congress our annual compilation of findings and recommendations for improving Government operations.

The information in this report, which we prepare each year, is of interest to members of the Congress and we believe that it should also be of interest to management officials in all Federal agencies. It contains much useful information on actual and possible improvements in the efficiency and economy with which Government operations are conducted.

Therefore, I am enclosing a copy of this report for your personal attention and use.

Sincerely yours,

Comptroller General
of the United States

Enclosure

The Honorable Richard Helms, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
